Following Him to the Cross

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." He said in reply, "I tell you, if they keep silent, the stones will cry out!" Luke 19:38-40

At the foot of the Mount of Olives was the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus agonized in prayer and was arrested. But several days before that happened, our Lord crossed over that hill next to the Mount of Olives with His Apostles and then approached the slope heading toward the Garden. As He descended, He encountered "the whole multitude of his disciples" who "began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen." They then cried out: "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." They met Him within eyeshot of the gate of the city of Jerusalem. This must have left the Twelve in amazement.

Among those who were amazed were the Pharisees. But they were not amazed with joy. Their amazement was caused by envy and led to condemnation. Jesus' response was very clear: "I tell you, if they keep silent, the stones will cry out!" That begs the question: If these disciples had not offered our Lord this glorious welcome, would the stones truly have cried out? Most certainly they would have! They did so just several days later after Jesus had been abandoned by the crowds.

Recall that when Jesus was crucified, almost every one of these disciples abandoned Him. They fled in fear. Even most of the Twelve ran and hid. Only our Blessed Mother, Saint John and a few others remained. Therefore, when Jesus died on the Cross, abandoned by the crowds, this prophecy of His came true. "And behold, the veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth quaked, rocks were split, tombs were opened, and the bodies of many saints who had fallen asleep were raised" Matthew 27:51-52.

We must never keep silent in praise and worship of God. There is an important lesson to learn from these two moments from that first Holy Week. At the beginning, as Jesus entered Jerusalem with much excitement, there were many who offered Him praise. It's easy to give praise and glory to God when it is popular and when many others are doing so. Contrast this with the end of Holy Week when Jesus was persecuted and killed. Suddenly, praise and open acclamations were not that popular. Fear had the effect of silencing the crowds and ending their worship of our Lord. For that reason, the stones did cry out and the earth quaked.

ONE IN FAITH AREA CATHOLIC COMMUNITY NEWS

Parish News:

~ St. Mary ~ St. Michael ~ St. Andrew ~ St. John ~

•Holy Week Liturgies This coming week we bring out the most valued treasures of our Church, our most wonderful liturgies! Please make every effort to join us.

♦Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper Unique components to this liturgy are the presentation of oils blessed by the Bishop at the Chrism Mass, the washing of the feet, and the procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the place of repose. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will follow Mass at St. Mary and St. Andrew until 10:00 pm.

♦Good Friday The Passion of the Lord This liturgy has three major components: the liturgy of the word which includes the reading of the Lord's passion and death, veneration of the cross, and Holy Communion.

♦Easter Vigil The Easter Vigil is the most beautiful liturgy in the Roman Catholic Church. On Saturday, April 19, at 8:30 pm a bilingual liturgy will be held at St. Mary's and an English liturgy will be held at St. John the Baptist. There are four main parts to the Vigil.

1.Service of Light: The liturgy will begin outdoors with the Service of Light, including the blessing of the new fire, the preparation of the new Paschal candle, the procession into the church and sharing the Light of Christ, and the Exsultet (the Easter Proclamation), an ancient hymn of praise to the Risen Christ and our hope in salvation.

2.Liturgy of the Word: The vigil readings capture the faithful promises of God throughout the history of our salvation, from the beginning. We hear the Creation Story; the foreshadowing of Jesus' sacrifice in the story of Abraham and Isaac; the parting of the Red Sea to free Israel from slavery; and the promises of the prophets. Listen for the constant theme of water, since all of this leads to Baptism as our share in the risen life of Jesus, as proclaimed in the Gospel and the return of the Alleluia after our Lenten penance. This year we will hear readings from Genesis, Exodus, Isaiah, Romans & Luke. These Scriptures help us to meditate on the wonderful works of God for his people since the beginning of time.

3.Baptismal Liturgy: This year we do not have any candidates for Baptism. At St. Mary's we will welcome 6 candidates for Confirmation and full communion. The Baptismal liturgy will consist of the blessing of the new water, the renewal of our baptismal promises, and sprinkling with blessed water, celebration of Reception and the Rite of Confirmation.

4.Liturgy of the Eucharist: The Mass continues, with special prayers inserted during the Eucharist Prayer. The whole Church is called to join at the sacrificial table that Christ prepared for us through his death and resurrection. After Communion, we conclude with a solemn blessing and sung dismissal, sending us forth with the Easter Alleluia echoing in our hearts.

A reception will follow the Easter Vigil at St. Mary's. Please join us to welcome the new members of our community and to celebrate Easter joy.

Christian Mothers Meeting... Melrose Christian Mothers will meet at St. Mary's Church next Tuesday, April 15, at 6:00 pm. All are welcome!

As we enter this Holy Week, consider whether you are more like the "whole multitude" of Jesus' disciples who praised Him when it was easy and popular, or whether you are more like our Blessed Mother and Saint John who remained faithful to Him when it was anything but popular to do so. Do you persevere in your praise and adoration of God during difficult times? Or do you allow fear of what others may say, fear of rejection and other forms of humiliation to deter you from your sacred calling?

An important lesson for us to learn from Jesus' depth of mercy is that, at first, it will most likely scandalize us also. Mercy to this extent is supernatural. It challenges our natural reason and calls us to a new way of thinking and relating to others. The only way to overcome the "scandal" we might feel in the face of God's mercy is to live it ourselves. Doing so will require that we put on new eyes to see sin, mercy and forgiveness through the eyes of God. If doing so shakes you to the core of your being, that might be a good sign. Are you allowing the apparent scandal of God's abundant mercy to transform you so that it is no longer a shock or scandal to you, but is experienced as good and holy and from the Heart of our God?

Reflect, today, upon these two contrasting moments of that first Holy Week. Join, today, with the crowds as they acclaim Jesus as King. As you do, turn your eyes to the King Whom you worship. Choose to follow Him to His betrayal, His suffering and His death. Commit yourself to fidelity, especially when it is hard to do so. Do not waver in your commitment. Look at the love in the heart of Jesus' own mother and pray to her that you will have the courage she had to remain faithful to our Lord, lest the stones be forced to cry out in your place.

Most glorious King, You were fittingly worshiped and adored as You entered Jerusalem for the Feast of Passover. I commit myself to that adoration and praise, and I pray that I will honor and love You, not only when it is easy but also when it is unpopular. May I never allow fear to deter me from my love of You and follow You all the way to the glorious throne of Your Cross.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Stewardship as a Way of Life "...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (Luke 22:34) How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet so as not to cause disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful conversation when the opportunity to talk about our faith arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.
