Bishop's Annual Appeal begins today, on this "Announcement Weekend." Please be prepared to help Bishop Kettler fulfill his pastoral duties by making a generous gift to his Appeal on Commitment Weekend (February 13-14). An "IN-PEW" solicitation for Bishop's Appeal will take place in the parish next weekend. If you have completed the pledge envelope sent to you by mail, please bring it to Mass next weekend, Commitment Weekend. Thank you!

Faith Formation

Children's Liturgy of the Word for preschool-aged children through 2nd grade will NOT meet this Sunday, Feb. 15 due to President's Day weekend.

NO FAITH FORMATION/RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES this week for any of our students. All students are asked to attend one of the Ash Wednesday liturgies in our cluster as we begin the journey of Lent for 2016!

St. Mary's School News

 Officer Craig Maus was recognized last week at a joint parish council/finance committee as the recipient of the 2016 National Catholic Educational Association Distinguished Graduate Award for the community of Melrose. Officer Maus graduated from St. Mary's School in 1992. Officer Maus is committed to his family, parish and the community. He is the Police Chief for the community of Melrose. He is an active member of the Melrose Fire Department. He is a member of St. Mary's Parish Council. Officer Maus can best be described as a gentleman who believes that service to one another is of primary importance. Officer Maus is an example of how Catholic schools educate people to take leadership roles in their community and beyond. It is with great pleasure that we recognize Officer Craig Maus as the 2016 Distinguished Graduate for the community of Melrose.

Catholic United Financial Raffle tickets are available at the Melrose parish office, St. Mary's and SJSA schools, and from any school parent. For $5 you have a chance to win one of 50 prizes. Grand prize is $20,000 or a 2016 Jeep Compass.
