Jesus' Human and Divine Love

When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he became perturbed and deeply troubled and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. John 11:32-35

Jesus' humanity shines clearly in today's Gospel. In the face of Lazarus' death, Jesus is deeply moved by the grief around Him. The Gospel says He "became deeply distressed and troubled" and eventually "wept." The Greek word for "deeply distressed," embrimaomai, suggests a strong emotional disturbance, even indignation or anger. It could be translated as "He snorted in spirit," indicating an involuntary, visceral response from the depth of His soul. Some commentators suggest Jesus' anger wasn't directed at the people weeping but at the reality of death itself, caused by sin. As God, Jesus knew death was never part of the Father's original plan for humanity. From a divine perspective, He saw death as a consequence of sin. From this point of view, death provoked righteous indignation and deeply troubled His human heart.

As the passage continues, Jesus' humanity is powerfully portrayed in the shortest verse in the Bible: "And Jesus wept." Why did He weep? Saint Paul reminds us in Hebrews: "For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin" (Hebrews 4:15). Jesus' tears show us that the Holy Trinity knows human pain firsthand. The Incarnate Son allowed Himself to experience sorrow, and the Father and the Holy Spirit shared in this sorrow through Him.

It's important to note that Jesus' sorrow was different from the weeping of Lazarus' sisters and the others present. Jesus' weeping uses the Greek word edakrysen, which means "to shed tears" or "weep silently." His tears were personal, controlled, intimate, heartfelt, and full of divine compassion. In contrast, the weeping of the others is described by the Greek word klaió, meaning loud wailing, a typical expression of communal and ritualistic mourning at the time. Jesus' grief was neither ritualistic nor excessive; it was intimate and heartfelt, born from personal sorrow and divine compassion.

ONE IN FAITH AREA CATHOLIC COMMUNITY NEWS

Parish News:

~ St. Mary ~ St. Michael ~ St. Andrew ~ St. John ~

- On that sacred evening of Holy Thursday, Jesus rose from supper, took off His outer garments, wrapped a towel around His waist, and knelt before His disciples to wash their feet. It was the posture of a servant—yet it was the Lord of all who knelt. During the Holy Thursday liturgy, the rite is often referred to as the Mandatum, from Jesus' words at the Last Supper (Jn 13:14) and also the first word of one of the antiphons that can be chanted during the ceremony: "Mandatum novum do vobis..." (I give you a new commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you, says the Lord). This rite signifies, in a powerful way, the love we are called to have for one another. If you would like to have your feet washed, please contact Sarah Woeste in the office (256-9516) or sign up in the sacristy at St. Mary's.
- St. Mary's Environment Committee will meet at the following times to prepare the environment for Holy Week: Thursday, March 26 at 9:00 am, Wednesday, April 1 at 9:00 am, and Saturday, April 4 at 8:00 am.

Parish Office Closure The Melrose and Freeport Parish Offices will be closed on Friday, April 3.

We must never forget Jesus' deep compassion, empathy, and sorrow. His human heart feels the same emotions we do—He grieves when we grieve, shares in our pain, and is moved by the hold sin has on us. After feeling these emotions at Lazarus' death, Jesus stood outside the tomb and "cried out in a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!'" (John 11:43). We can imagine the passion behind His command. In our lives, when we are trapped in sin or burdened by human weakness, we must hear Jesus calling us to freedom with the same divine authority and human passion.

Reflect today on Jesus' humanity and how He perfectly understands everything we experience. His deep empathy for our suffering and His joy when we rise with His grace show us how intimately He knows us. God became one of us in every way, sharing in our human condition—though without sin—so that we might share in His divinity. Ponder His humanity and let His closeness draw you to Him, giving you a share in His divine life.

Most compassionate Lord, You experienced human nature in its fullness. Though You never sinned, You allowed Yourself to feel the effects of our sin and suffering, filling them with Your divine compassion. Help me to always remember Your humanity, knowing that through it, I come to share in Your divinity. Jesus, I trust in You.

ONE IN FAITH ACC NEWS CON'T FROM PG 2

Journey with Jesus to Calvary St. Francis of Assisi will be performing "Journey with Jesus to Calvary" again this year. The performance lasts about 75 minutes and covers the events from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday. It's an event you don't want to miss! Performance times are Friday, March 27 and Saturday, March 28 at 7:30 pm and Sunday, March 29 at 1:00 pm. The address for St. Francis of Assisi is 44055 Hwy 238, Freeport.

Tenebrae A Tradition at St. Mary's Cathedral. Everyone is welcome at St. Mary's Cathedral in St. Cloud on Good Friday, April 3, at 8:00 pm for Tenebrae, which is Latin for shadows or darkness. At this event, participants will experience the gradual extinction of all lights in the church, symbolizing the temporary triumph of the prince of darkness over the Light of the World, and loud noises created at the end of the service by the assembly and ministers, suggesting the earthquake described in the Passion Narratives.

Divine Mercy Sunday at St. Mary's Cathedral

Celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday was originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her visions of Jesus and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Catholic Church. This year we are happy to announce two speakers at the event. Chris True will give his testimony on his Catholic Faith, and Fr. Jeremy Ploof will give a meditation. Divine Mercy Sunday will be held at St. Mary's Cathedral on Sunday, April 12, from 1:00- 3:00 pm. There will be Adoration and an opportunity for reconciliation.

Special Prayer Service Abbot Douglas and the monks of Saint John's Abbey invite you to a special prayer service at the Abbey Church on Saturday, March 28, the eve of Palm Sunday. The service begins at 7:00 pm and features a beautiful music setting and prayer - an inspiring way to enter into Holy Week. A reception with light refreshments will follow in the Great Hall. Please join us for this special vigil service, on Saturday, March 28, at 7:00 pm. And feel
